DANIEL CUPID WINS A GREAT VICTORY

Eloping Couple from Nicholas County Married in Local Police Station.

Sandbagged, kicked around like a hound dog, trampled over a la Belgium and finally grabbed by the nape of the neck and held under water for hours, Daniel Cupid, Esq., came to the surface Saturday afternoon, smiling and victorious.

After being held in the local city jail two days and nights, after they had been arrested while enroute to Oakland, Md., to wed, William Hammonds and Andrew Mills, of Woodbine, Nicholas county, were married at police headquarters at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon by the Rev. P. M. Baber, pastor of the Central Christian church.

It was the old, old story of the irate father's opposition melting away before the tears of the young girl. William Hammonds, of Woodbine, the irate father, whose telephone message to the local police resulted in the arrest of the eloping couple, arrived in the city Saturday afternoon, prepared to take his daughter back home. In his pocket he carried a felony warrant for Mills. The charge was kidnapping.

But the father had not reckoned with the pleading powers of the couple. The little girl—she is just 14—told her father time after time of her love for Mills who is 25. Perhaps Mr. Hammonds recalled the days of his youth; it was evident that something touched his heart strings. Before the pleas of his daughter, his opposition to the wedding slowly grew milder and milder. At last he consented.

The happy young couple quickly sent out for a preacher, and the Rev. Mr. Baber was the first one located. He came to the police station, and in the courtroom, with officers as witnesses, the minister said the words that united the couple.

The young couple eloped from the home of the girl in Nicholas county Thursday afternoon, and were arrested here that night after the father had telephoned to the local police, asking that they be stopped.

MASONS

Are to Hold Annual State Meetings in the City of Huntington This Week.

HUNTINGTON, Nov. 11.—Five hundred Masons, from all sections of West Virginia, are expected in Huntington next week to attend the forty-sixth convocation of the West Virginia Grand Chapter Royal Arch Masons, which begins Monday, and the West Virginia grand lodge of Masons, which begins Wednesday.

All sessions will be held in the Masonic temple at Third avenue and Eleventh street, and the convention will be held Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Special preparation has been made for the entertainment of the visitors and each day the ladies of the Eastern Star will serve luncheon at the temple. A theater party will mark the third day of the Royal Arch Masons' convocation.

One of the most interesting phases of the Royal Arch Masons' convocation, at least to Huntingtonians, is the fact that, in the logical sequence of official advancement, W. K. Cowden, well known attorney and prominent Mason of Huntington, will be elevated to the highest state office, that of grand high priest.

SCOTT MAKES VISIT.

J. M. Scott, of Grafton, division superintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, visited the city Saturday afternoon officially. He inspected the yards here and went over a proposition of the Glen Elk Lumber Company for an additional sidetrack at the West End station.

TO LEAVE THURSDAY.

George L. Anderson, who recently resigned as deputy county clerk, was here Saturday evening from Wyatt whither he and his family went a few days ago. Mr. Anderson and family are preparing to leave Thursday morning on No. 3 for Grand Junction, Colo., where they will remain some time for the benefit of his health.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Brack Tucker and May Rollins, Homer D. Brown and Stella Miller, Guy S. Bailey and Pearl B. Shelton, and Harry J. Gill and Margaret E. McEwan.

WASH-JEFF ELEVEN OUTPLAYED BY PITT

Metzger's Team No Match for Glen Warner's Speedy Warriors.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
PITTSBURG, Nov. 11.—The University of Pittsburgh football team outplayed Washington and Jefferson College here today and won by a score of 37 to 0. Pitt scored a touchdown shortly after the opening kickoff when Herron, blocking a punt, fell on the ball as it bounded back of the Washington and Jefferson goal line. In the fourth period DeHart ran sixty-two yards for a touchdown but the game officials refused to allow it, alleging that the Pitt players had tripped the opposing line men, who were trying to tackle the runner. The lineup: Pitt—37. W. & J.—0.

CHOIR WILL PERFORM IN SALEM CITY

Monday Night Giving the First Number of the Lyceum Lecture Course There.

SALEM, Nov. 11.—The opening number of the Salem Lyceum Lecture Course will be given Monday night, at the college auditorium. The initial performance will be rendered by the Chicago Orchestral Choir and represents new ideas in lyceum companies and one sure to prove popular with the audience here. This choir has been organized by Bohamir Kryl, one of the most famous band leaders and coronet soloists in America. One portion of the program will be given to stringed instruments. Another portion of the program will represent an ensemble of the following instruments: cornet, clarinet, French horn, euphonium, trombone and tuba. There will also be instrumental solos, duets and quartets. The vocal soloist in the choir will be Mme. Helene Cafarelli, soprano. The entire list of talent in the choir consists of seven persons.

The additional numbers of the Lyceum course and date of performances are as follows:
Monroville Wood, December 23.
Dr. Bradford, January 30.
The Killarney Girls, March 5.
Edward Reno, (magician), March 15.
T. B. Fletcher, April 12.

Leads His Ticket.
The unfair attack made here upon the Hon. Stuart F. Reed by partisan Democrats in the campaign, showed in the result of the election in Tennessee district, in that Mr. Reed led his ticket in the vote and also had a majority over his opponent, Alderson, of fifty-seven in this, a usual Democratic district.

Washington Wedding.
Mr. John Kennamere, of Alabama, in the employ of the postoffice department at Washington, D. C., and Miss Lillie Townsend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Townsend, formerly of this city, were married at the home of the bride in Washington, 24 R. street, N. E., Saturday, November 4, at 8 o'clock. Those who attended the wedding from here were the grandparents, the Hon. and Mrs. Jesse F. Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Randolph and daughter, Ernestine, and Miss Ida Randolph. Mr. and Mrs. Kennamere will make their future home in Washington.

Not Disheartened.
Local suffragists are not disheartened at the seeming adverse results on the suffrage amendment but are planning to continue the agitation for the early enfranchisement of women.

Personals.
Mrs. George A. Trainer is in attendance at the national meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union at Indianapolis.

Harry K. Schmick has resigned his position in C. A. Schutte's store and accepted a clerkship with Messrs. Stone Brothers at Clarksburg. He and Mrs. Schmick moved to that place Saturday.

Mrs. Nora Cook, of Weston, has been a guest of her mother, Mrs. James Lewis, for several days.

Miss Alice Burnside, of Wichita Falls, Tex., is a guest of Mrs. Stanley Young.

Miss Ernestine Randolph has returned from Washington, where she attended the marriage of her cousin, Miss Lillian Townsend.
